Japanese Room, Garden, Bank facade:
 A tradition in dislocation.

Can history be horizontal?
 Can it define the lie of the land?
 Can topography be curated?
 Can memory surface?

Progressive Institution, In-progress Building

{Specialization: The structural adaptation of some body part for a particular function}

The Tradition of the 'New'

Building as infrastructure (adapt, transform)

Solid body, loose fit (accomodate change, allow incremental growth)

Fluid connections (favour natural flows of ideas, facilitate replenishment)

Separate but combinable (think) tanks

Add-ons (experience diversity)

Capillary sensors (feel, compare, memorize)

Fourth skin (constantly renew)

A Saïl Fortue

Iconic	vital expression of sustainability
Flexible	various sources of energy
Experimental	zero carbon, real environmental gains
Laboratory	light, technology, equipment for change
Unfinished	allow for future systems integration
Collaborative	many authors, one cultural aim
Crafted	express the systems toward learning goals

The building environment as studio

Inclusive Space

Mediateques

Student Wares' house

Tutorial Commons

Work Shops

Classroom Settings

Building Observation Settings

Flexible	spaces used for multiple purposes
Rooted	grown in place, branching out
Robust	durable structures
Unfinished	raw and believable spaces
Collaborative	many design positions, one educational goal
Crafted	details to surprise and intrigue
