"learning from peers

The studio is the most important place of learning; not just because you learn by doing but also you learn so much from the other students."
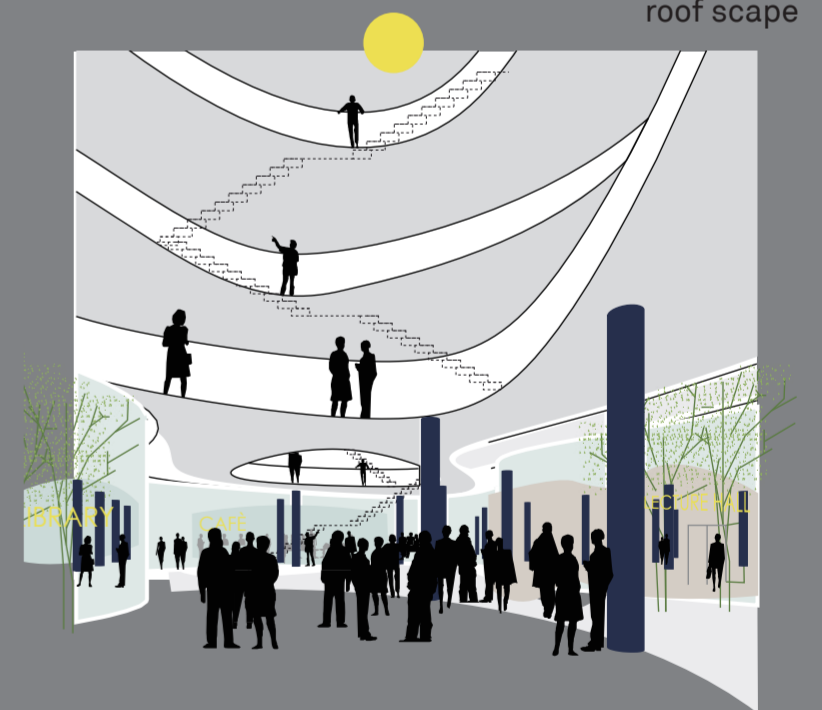

"cantine

It definitly needs a good cafe and a bar; the food should be better than the usual junk food. The cantine is also the best place for formal and informal meetings."

roof scape

main foyer

section1/250